This Evening at 6.30pm at St Mary's; come along to celebrate with Revd Caroline as she celebrates the Holy Eucharist for the first time! Refreshments to follow.

Revd Caroline will be wearing the First Mass vestments given to her by the parish. If you would like to contribute please pass your gift to a Churchwarden. Thank you.

After the service and before the refreshments Caroline will be offering people an individual first blessing. This ancient tradition sees God's blessings upon the newly ordained passed on to his people. More details in the service or from Canon John.

Next Sunday is the last time our Brownies and Rainbows are able to come to St Mary's on a Sunday before the summer break; there will be an Acorns group running however and the service will follow the First Sunday order at 9.30am to keep things slightly shorter and facilitate things for the little ones and their parents.
