Beatitudes

Revelation presents a vision of nothing less than a new creation — and God has all in his hand, from beginning to end. Scripture reminds us and shows us the wonder of accepting God's love and trusting in the vision of his truth. The Beatitudes of blessing which we trust to receive, are more spiritual in Matthew — fundamentally necessary to our souls' health. So consider: do we dare to enter into the vivid hopes that the Bible presents to us? The vision of God, which is the goal of sanctity, is an unfashionable objective. How do you feel about it as you engage with Scripture and your experience of God?

Worship at St Mary's

No collection is taken during the service: there is a plate for offerings near the entrance door. Tax-payers, please use one of the gift-aid envelopes. Tea, coffee & squash is available in the hall after the service.

There is non-alcoholic wine and gluten free wafers available. At the Sung Eucharist every week, we offer a ministry of prayer for anyone who has particular needs or concerns. We also need donations for the Parish Hamper, and the following stalls: Wine and Chocolate Tombola, Grand Draw, cakes, marmalades and pickles, home made sweets and toiletries. A full list of requirements is available. Please contact Rosina asap if you can offer to help, including with the sale of the Grand Draw tickets.

Children's Society Boxes Every year almost 120,000 people help change the lives of this country's most vulnerable young people by having a Children's Society Box in their home. Last year £1.6m in loose change was collected! If you don't have loose change anymore, then donating cash or cheques, (payable to 'The Children's Society') is equally acceptable to this worthwhile charity. Please can you bring me your Children Society Boxes ASAP so that I can count up our contributions & any old one pound coins can be banked before the end of October. Many thanks, Sheila Barton.
